

Huntington Library, Art Collections and Botanical Gardens
Grounding in Botany Application

9:00 AM to 3:30 PM, Tuesday-Friday July 15 through August 8

Enrolment is limited; notifications of acceptance will be sent on or after May 9th, 2008

Name _____

Home address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Home telephone number _____

School district _____

School name _____

School address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

School telephone number _____ ext. _____

Preferred e-mail address: _____

Grade(s) taught: _____ Subject(s) taught: _____

Years teaching: _____ Years in current position: _____

Biology or botany courses taken _____

Educational background (highest degree/institution)

Previous extension courses (at the Huntington or elsewhere) in which you have been a participant

At your school, do you have ready access to _____ computers _____ microscopes _____ indoor growing areas _____ outdoor growing areas

How, if at all, did you make use of plants in your classroom in the past academic year?

List any in-class labs or demonstrations involving plants used in your classroom _____

Are you familiar with Wisconsin Fast Plants or Arabidopsis (list lessons, subjects, etc.)?

What biology text book did you use this past year and which will you use next academic year?

Experience with plants outside of classroom _____

How did you hear about this workshop (please be specific)? _____

- Please write a short (up to 500 words) description of why you are interested in this course and what you hope to gain from it.
- Please include a letter of support from your principal

Send, FAX, or email completed applications to:

Mike Kerkman
Huntington Botanical Gardens
1151 Oxford Road, San Marino, CA 91108
Phone: 626-405-3586
FAX: 626-405-3501
E-mail: mkerkman@huntington.org